Baking Bread for the Needy

As part of their community service requirement, students at the AUCP may volunteer their time making French bread for the needy.

Whether it be baking bread, working with children or offering companionship to the elderly, all AUCP advanced French immersion students in Aix and Marseille provide weekly community service in the interest of one of the many local non-profit organizations.

Examples of Community Service Work

Teacher's Assistant

Animating Arts & Crafts workshops at Kindergarten or primary school level. Tutoring at Jr. High school level.

Tutoring North African Students

Helping students prepare their entrance exams to the prestigious Grande Ecole: l'Institut d'Etudes Politiques.

The French Red Cross

Working on fund-raising activities and food donation campaigns.

Children with Special Needs

Assisting teachers of autistic children in a French private school.

Supporting the Elderly

Conversation and companionship for the elderly.

What AUCP Students Say About Community Service

It allows you to cut through the blinders of the charmed student life we lead, to see firsthand the difficulties facing the community. And then you actually get to do something about it. It feels great!

Adam Weiner, George Washington University – AUCP Aix Fall 09

Working at the Red Cross pushed my comfort limits every day, but in the end I met wonderful people, learned more French and expanded my comfort zone – all while helping the surrounding French community!

Nora Thomas, Mills College – AUCP Aix Fall 09

This was a great way to get involved in the community and interact with native French speakers at the same time!

Isobel Rubin, Barnard College – AUCP Marseille Spring 09

Just when I was feeling overwhelmed by French, I met the most amazing group of kids who allowed me to remember how hard it is to learn a new language, but how gratifying it is the ability to make lasting connections.

Amy Krull, Colorado College – AUCP Aix Fall 09

Deadline for Fall enrollments: April 19th
