BLUEPRINT FOR INTERCULTURAL LEARNING

Lilli Engle, founding director of the AUCP, will be at the Sixth Annual Forum on Education Abroad in Charlotte, North Carolina from March 24th to March 26th, 2010.

On Wednesday March 24th she will be leading the full-day workshop "Blueprint for Intercultural Learning: The What, the How, and the Why" along with Michael Vande Berg, Vice President of Academic Affairs, CIEE, and Anthony Ogden of Pennsylvania State University.

The workshop will explore the value and challenge of intercultural learning, as well as the key dimensions of effective program design and intercultural training. Participants will examine the obstacles and solutions to improved student learning and experience several innovative intercultural activities designed to allow them to develop insights into ways to optimize student learning abroad.

On Thursday March 25th, the AUCP will have a stand in the Exhibit Hall.

Ms Engle looks forward to seeing you at the Forum and hopes to share with you new ideas to stimulate home campus' interest in the French language, France and the francophone world.
