

MARSEILLE

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, THE MIDDLE EAST
POLITICAL SCIENCE, CROSS-CULTURAL MEDIATION

Fall and/or Spring Semester

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- A stimulating, ethnically and religiously diverse immersion setting in Marseille
- Pertinent courses taught by French faculty from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques
- Introductory Arabic
- One week of intensive study in Fez, Morocco (Fall and Spring)

THE AUCP DIFFERENCE

- Individual home-stay placement, both in Marseille and Morocco
- An all French-language environment
- On-going training in cross-cultural communication
- Weekly Community Service
- Personal Interest Activity
- Language Exchange Partner

COURSE CREDIT AND CERTIFICATION

- 15 credit hours either through home university credit or via an official transcript from a US accredited institution (Marist College, NY)
- An internationally recognized certificate attesting to French language competence according to norms set by the Council of Europe, for employment in the Francophone world *
- A highly recognized certificate attesting to cross-cultural competence, for employment in any and all international or culturally diverse settings. **

*TEF (Test d'évaluation du français) organized by the Paris Chamber of Commerce

IDI (Intercultural Development Inventory) created and distributed by Milton Bennett and Mitch Hammer, Ph.D.s